

COMPETENT COMMISSIONING FOR MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Equity, Preventive, Cost-effective, Quality (EPiCQ) Commissioning Workshop

Organised by the Cultural Consultation Service, in partnership with Queen Mary Innovation, the objectives of the Competent Commissioning for Mental Health Care workshop are:

21th September 2011
9:30am – 1pm

The QMB Innovation
Centre
42 New Road
London E1 2AX

- To reflect and update on the implications of the government reforms for the commissioning and provision of mental health care at this time financial cuts in the NHS and Social Care sectors
- To consider models and methods of commissioning that are needed to meet patient needs, and address the complexity of care practices, and tackle inequalities, whilst still delivering on quality and cost-effectiveness
- To consider the role of clinicians, specialists, and communities in commissioning practice
- The future of mental health services and commissioning practice: expectations and standards

To register for a free place or for more information about the workshop, please contact Andrea Palinski, a.palinski@qmul.ac.uk.
